

Tuesday, 09 June 2026

Greetings,

Congratulations and welcome to the 2026 Equity College Counselling Mentor Internship Program!

Having gone through your application, we are confident that you are a good fit for the program and that you will diligently execute your duties to ensure the success of your mentees.

This is a Full-Time Internship that will commence on Monday, 1st June – Saturday, 30th August 2026. During this time, you will be contracted as an Equity Bank Support Staff and will be expected to adhere to the terms and conditions of your contract. In addition to these, you will also need to sign this document, where you agree to the expectations laid out by the Equity Leaders Program.

After you have read the points below and are in agreement, kindly sign and return this back for filing by this Tuesday, 1st June 2026.

We wish you the best and are hopeful that you will put your best foot forward in mentoring the scholars to ensure they succeed in securing admission and full financial aid in the 2026/2027 application cycle.

Please read the below and sign if in agreement with the laid down expectations.

Kind Regards,

Equity College Counselling Program (ECCP)

EQUITY LEADERS PROGRAM – COLLEGE COUNSELLING PROGRAM

1.0 2026 PROGRAM TIMELINE

The program timeline is as follows:

DATE	ACTIVITY
Monday 25 th May – Saturday, 30 th May	SGL & Mentor Induction
Monday, 1 st June – Saturday, 6 th June	Scholar Induction
Monday, 8 th June – Saturday, 4 th July	Bootcamp
Monday, 6 th July – Saturday, 27 th July	Workshop + SAT Prep
May, June, July, August, September	Information Sessions (Both Virtual & In-person)
August -December 2026	Mentor mentee sessions/Applications

Please note the following:

- Specific schedules for the above will be provided in due course
- From August – December, scholars will be preparing their documentation, preparing and sitting for entrance exams and submitting their applications for admissions with funding

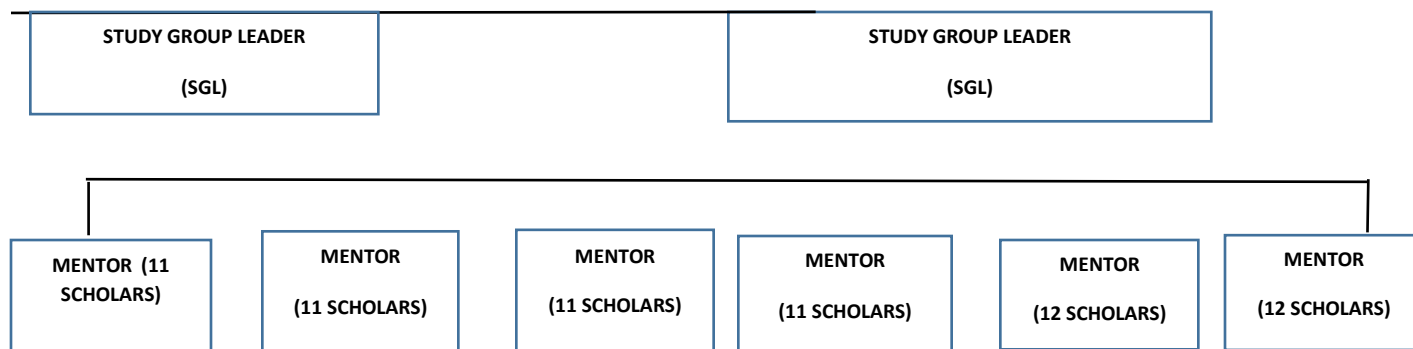

2.0 MENTORSHIP

A 360-degree approach to mentorship, will be employed. As a mentor, you will be expected to provide academic, social and mental guidance to your mentees. The mentorship should cover:

- Reviewing and editing application essays
- Monitoring and guiding application exams preparation
- Motivation through the entire application process
- Psycho-social support in dealing with challenges related to the application process
- Direction and guidance in creating work and study-plans

3.0 PROGRAM STRUCTURE

The program will consist of several Study Groups, each consisting of a Study Group Leader, 4-6 Mentors and 68 Scholars in Rwanda. For the regions, each country will be allocated a Study Group Leader.

You will be under the direct supervision of the Study Group Leader with the support of the Equity Leaders Program – Global Universities Program team.

4.0 JOB ROLES AND EXPECTATIONS

a) Time Commitment

- You will be required to be available for the internship i.e. 1st June – 30th August 2026 on a full-time basis for the 3 months unless your school reporting date comes sooner, in which case you will be required to communicate this immediately to your supervisor.
- You are required to be committed to working with your assigned mentees for at least one year until the end of the application cycle. This means that you will be expected to continue with the mentorship relationship with your mentee as needed post the Workshop and Bootcamp period.
- The standard working hours are 6.00pm – 10.00pm (Monday to Friday) and 8.00am – 5.00pm (Saturdays). Working from home and online will require flexibility and adaptability to prevailing circumstances. Apart from the official working hours, you will be required to be accessible by phone and email within reasonable hours as the need arises.

b) Dress Code

Even when working from home, ensure that you are dressed decently during any video conferencing or virtual learning sessions.

c) Mentor – Mentee Relationship

- You will be expected to establish and maintain mutually co-operative, supportive and professional relationships and boundaries with the mentees
- You will be required to respect different cultural values and work in a non-discriminatory manner, even when mentees may not share your lifestyle and values
- You will be expected to serve as a positive role model, resource, guide and supporter, by modelling desirable behaviours
- You will be expected to provide a safe space for the mentees where they can talk about their difficulties, concerns and issues
- You will be expected to respect the mentees right to self-determination and independence
- You will be required to help the mentees set goals and work towards accomplishing them
- You will be expected to share knowledge and offer perspective drawing from your own experience as a mentee
- You will be required to strictly maintain confidentiality of information shared by your mentees

d) SAT / ACT Training

You will be required to provide monitoring and guidance support while referring them to avenues from where they can get further guidance.

e) Essay Writing

- You will be expected to research on and prepare Essay Prompts which you will administer to your mentees. You will also need to prepare a schedule for doing so
- You will be required to mark essays and give feedback in a constructive and timely manner
- You will be expected to prepare a progress report and eventually guide the mentees in picking a topic for their Personal Statement and guiding them in writing Supplementary Essays

f) Administration and Communication

- You will then be expected to create a 'WhatsApp' Group for your mentees and also create a Google Classroom where information, past papers, presentations etc. will be shared
- You will be required to create a 'Scholar Profile' for each mentee which you will continue to update for the period of mentorship

g) Workshop / Boot camp

- You will be required, in collaboration with your fellow mentors, to prepare and conduct presentations as requested by the College Counselling Co-ordinator
- You will be required to provide all necessary support as requested by the ELP team and still continue with your role as a Mentor

h) Applications Support

- You will be required to provide knowledge and support in creation of College Board accounts, ACT accounts, Common Application accounts and any other application platforms
- You will be expected to provide insight into University and College profiles and assist your mentees in narrowing down their choices
- You will be expected to provide information on documents required for the applications and guide them on how to get them in time for their applications, mainly based on past experience
- You will also be expected to assist your scholars prepare their documents for Financial Aid applications
- You will be expected to assist your mentees prepare 'Letters of Continued' interest should they be waitlisted
- You will be expected to assist your mentees prepare in the gathering of all documents from their high school and ensuring that those documents have been filled in correctly, accurately and honestly.
- You will be required to prepare a recommendation letter for each of your assigned mentees

I _____ of ID Number _____ agree to adhere to the expectations set out for the Equity Leaders Program as written in this document.

I agree to face a disciplinary hearing should I fail to adhere to these expectations or found to be in full violation of them.

I understand that my failure to adhere to or my violation of any of the above expectations will result in forfeiture of future internship and work opportunities at Equity Bank or Equity Group Foundation.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Kindly place your initials on each page to show you have read the entire document*